Harry Miller, of Cold Point, is picking some luscious strawberries of good size and fine quality from his Marshall plants. He also has the William Belt and the Gandy varieties, and although ordinarily earlier and later respectively than the Marshall, so strange are the vagaries of the present season that all are ripening practically together. The plants attained good foliage, are clean, and the berries are ripening in good condition, and the marketing is easy, as the quality, appearance and general condition command a ready sale. Mr. Miller has set out a very promising bed for next season, and the plants, which were started in April, have now attained a very good start. The asparagus bed nearly has also been prolific this season, about 100 bunches being cut each week and disposed of in the Germantown markets. Mr. Miller has secured a good start with his truck this season, all of which shows promise and is in splendid cultivation.

Ambler High School Wins.

By defeating Lansdale high school team last Friday afternoon at Lansdale, Ambler high school clinches the pennant in the race for the championship of Bucks-Montgomery County High School league. The locals were able to down the Lansdale boys through the masterly pitching of Pullinger, who was ably backed up by his battery mate, Davis,, by the score of 4 to 3. Pullinger, for eight innings did not allow a hit. However, errors in the final period, aided by two hits enabled Lansdale to score three runs.

Ambler has now won eight and lost one, while Doylestown, its nearest rival, for the high honors, has won six and lost three. The final game of the season will be played Friday on the the Ambler grounds with Souderton. This should be a great game, as the latter team re ntly refeated Doylestown by a good sized score. The students of the local school will be out in force at this game, as it is likely that they will make it an occasion for celebrating the splendid victory of their schoolmates in winning the trophy of the league.

Whitpain Commencement.

"Wish Less; Do More," was the motto of the graduating class of the Whitpain high school at the 29th annual commencement held last Friday evening in the Firemen's auditorium, Centre Square. The large hall was crowded to the doors, and it is estimated that it was the largest audience that has ever greeted a graduating class of the township. The graduates were: Miss Mildred B. Bernhard, Miss Ethel Richter and Edgar Louden, who selected the above motto, and the colors of green and white, and the beautiful lily of the valley for their class flower. The music was under the direction of Professor Thomas R. Middleton, teacher of music in the schools, who also rendered a beautiful vocal solo. The singing of the pupils of the school was one of the enjoyable features. The invocation was delivered by the Rev. J. D. Detrick, pastor of Boehm's Reformed church, Blue Bell. The salutatorian was Miss Bernhard, who in a most excellent manner gave the life story of that wonderful women, Florence Nightingale. "Our National Parks," was the title of an oration delivered in a splendid manner by Edgar Louden, who described our great parks in a most interesting manner. The valedictory of the class was delivered by Miss Richter, who before saying the farewells on behalf of the class gave the history of Valley Forge and the story of the hardships endured by the patriotic soldiers who were camped there during the great struggle for independence. Miss Richter handled her subject in a splendid manner and well merited the applause she received at its close. The address to the graduates was delivered by the Rev. Ralph L. Mayberry, pastor of Mt. Pleasant Baptist church, Ambler. Mr. Mayberry took as his subject. "The League of Nations" and after outlining the league of nations, as endeavoring to be formed by the great powers of the world, Mr. Mayberry in most appropriate manner brought in a league of nations to be adopted in the every-day life of the graduates. The diplomas were presented the supervising principal of the school, Miss Emma Ellen Freed, who also took the opportunity to express her appreciation to residents of the township for the courtesies accorded her during her principalship. Miss Freed will teach elsewhere next year and has resigned from the local school. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. C. C. Snyder, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church.

AMBLER IS STRENGTHENING.

Local Team, Although Last, Is Improving.

McCormick Departs as Playing Manager—Changes in the Line-Up That Will Win Games From Now On.

SATURDAY GAMES.

So far as the Montgomery County league is concerned the whole baseball world is going wrong. There is Lansdale that we all thought was going through the league with its high priced stars like wild-fire, but just look what has happened. The team from stove town has played three games and in two of the contests they have taken the short end of the count and the one game won was from our own team and had the locals been handled differently and Fuerie had not been taken out of the box another story might have been told about this game. Again the dope went wrong when it was predicted that the Hillers would be the goat as usual this season. Manager Benis has his boys working finely, and as a result Chestnut Hill downed both Ambler and Lansdale while a close one was dropped to the champions. The Bucks aggregation, under Manager Wodock, who is being assisted by his brother Ray, has the real class of the league, and at this time look like thec hampions for 1921. The two teams that are a disappointment to date are Conshohocken and Ambler, both of which it was believed would be fighting for the high honors of the league, but instead, on Saturday, they were occupying the two positions at the bottom of the ladder, with the former one notch higher than the latter. These two teams met last Saturday and before it is forgotten we wish to impart the knowledge that the aforesaid notch was secured at the expense of our fellows who had to take the short end of a 7 to 2 score. The irontown outfit did not have a thing on us up until the seventh session. Then what a beautiful exhibition of fozzeling away a ball was given by the Ambler ball players. After McCarrick was retired in opening the seventh period, Beake singled. Livingstone lifted one out to Torpey, who made a beautiful muff of the ball. Shafer added to the misery by missing Hesselbacker's grounder and allowing Beake to score. Williams got a base on balls. More damage was done when Burnes messed things up on Parker's drive to short, giving Livingstone a chance to score. Heinbecker set two more runs over when he hit for two bases. The fifth run was scored when Hallowell threw late to the plate on Hisenberg's hit to second The visitors' other two runs were scored in the fourth frame on a base on balls, two hits and an out. Ambler scored one in the second on an error and Martin's long single, and one in the last round on two singles and an out.

Other games played Saturday resulted as follows: Doylestown 4, Souderton 0; Chestnut Hill 10, Lansdale 7.

MEMORIAL DAY GAMES.

Ambler was defeated on Memorial day in both games. The first contest was lost to Souderton in the forenoon by the score of 12 to 5, and the afternoon affair went to Doylestown by the forfeit score of 9 to 0. There is not much to tell about either game, except to say our fellows were outclassed in both games. At Souderton a new pitcher by the name of Nitchie was on the hill for Ambler and the Champions took kindly to his delivery and amassed a total of 18 safe blows.

Fuerie went to the peak for the locals in the afternoon game against Doylestown and he went along nicely for several innings, but the county seat boys jumped him in one frame for three runs due to two three base blows, a single and an error. These three tallies were enough to win, but the Bucks county aggragation was not satisfied, and, aided by Fuerie's teammates and the field umpire, they gathered six more runs.

Doylestown has a strong team this year and will make the other clubs go some to beat them to the pennant. The team is evenly balanced, with good pitching and catching and splendid batters and in addition the club is being well handled by Ray (German) Wodock, who is a past master on inside play, evidence of which was seen in the contest Monday afternoon. Ambler has now dropped five games in a row and there is considerable disappointment among local rooters and followers of the team. However, there is no room for the unjust criticism that is going the rounds of the management. No one has worked harder to give Ambler a good ball club, which has been the case during the last four years, than Manager Amey, and if given time Ambler will again be up there battling for high honors with the other leaders before the season is much older. Plans are now underway for a meeting this week, and it is expected that a general shake-up of the team will take place.

The outcome of games played Memorial day was Chestnut Hill 13, Doylestown 6; Chestnut Hill 2, Conshohocken 8; Conshohocken 3, Lansdale 1; Lansdale 7, Souderton 1.

Colony Club Luncheon

On Wednesday the Colony Club of Ambler held its annual luncheon in the town hall, Ambler, closing the year.

The hall was a scene of beauty with walls and tables garlanded with flowers, when 110 club members with guests enjoyed the delicious luncheon.

Mrs. Robert J. Rolston in a few appropriate words welcomed the members and guests. After the luncheon the program was one of entertainment rather than instruction. The first number was "The Scarf Dance," given by the Colony Club quartette, —Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Talbert, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Christ, with Mrs. Foedisch at the piano.

Mrs. Rolston then introduced Mrs. Barber, from the Emerson club, Philadelphia, who gave the only serious talk of the afternon. She urged all to develop more thought power, to develop the intellectual side, as it has not to be developed since the war.

Mrs. Rese, of the Matinee Musical club, of Philadelphia, rendered a solo, "Nymphs and Fawns," and "Just Her Way" for an encore Miss Jane Campbell, of the Germantown Woman's club, then read one of her amusing creations, "A Truthful Singer," which was followed by a solo by Mrs. Thomas Craig, "Spring is the Time for Love."

Mrs. Harvey Allen gave a French Canadian Poem in dialect, "The Red Canoe," also "In the Low Backed Car." Mrs. Reese sang another beautiful solo, "The Indian's Song."

Mrs. Gregory, of Bala-Cynwyd club, read "People" and "Grace for Gardens."

Mrs. Rolston, the retiring president, in a few well chosen words thanked the club for support during her two years as president, and made a plea that all cooperate with the new president, whom she then introduced, Mrs. Charles C. Mehler. Mrs. Mehler thanked the club for having chosen her as the leader and asked for the support and cooperation of all.

The new officers were then announced: vice president, Mrs. A. J. Williams; recording secretary, Mrs. Thomas Atkinson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Warren Chandler; treasurer, Mrs. Oscar Stillwagon; directors, Mrs. Everham, Mrs. Rolston, Mrs. Crist; Chairman of committees, building fund, Mrs. Rolston; civics, Mrs. Hopkins; dancing class, Mrs. Edmund Mills, education, Mrs. Nichols; hospital fund, Mrs. Eckfeldt hospitality, Mrs. Rhoads: house, Mrs. Thomas; legislation, Mrs. T. Duncan Just; membership, Mrs. Biddle; publicity, Mrs. Straith-Miller; music, Mrs. Foedisch.

Mrs. Williams, the vice president, gave a stirring talk on tolerance in club life as well as home life, and presented the retiring president, Mrs. Rolston, with a basket of flowers from the club as a token of appreciation of her efforts for the club. Much credit and thanks must be given to Mrs. Foedisch, chairman of music, for the delightful musical numbers rendered, and to Mrs. Radcliffe, chairman of hospitality, for the delicious luncheon.

A Million Dollars' Worth of Clothes.

The scarcity of clothing throughout Europe, and the misery due to the lack of it in cold weather, will be greater next winter than in any period since 1915. Stores of linen gathered in the prosperous years preceding the war are now exhausted. Saleable articles that could be exchanged for clothing have largely disappeared in the pawn shops and been exported to foreign lands. Almost no clothing has been bought in Central and Eastern Europe by the great masses of the population since 1915. The relation of wages to the cost of living since the drop in the rate of exchange that followed the war, has made such purchase practically impossible during the last three years. People can live through the summer without much clothing, although not without discomfort and mental suffering. In winter, however, clothing is necessary to life. The clothing for distribution next winter must be collected during these summer months and shipped to Europe by September, or it will arrive late. The American Friends Service Committee of 20 South 12th Street, Philadelphia , Pa., appeals to the American public to send them without delay at least a million dollars' worth of clothing. It will be used in Poland, Vienna, Germany, or Russia according to the wishes of the donors, which will be scrupulously followed. Clothing arriving unallocated will be distributed according to the relative needs of the countries mentioned.

What is needed' Knitted garments such as filled the liesure hours of the women of America during the war; second-hand clothing that is strong and clean and servicable, and worth paying freight on to Europe; and shoes in good condition, for all ages, and particularly shoes with low heel and wide toes; baby clothing is unlimited quantities; yarn, in order that the women of Europe may also knit for themselves; leather which the cobblers of Europe may make into shoes; uncut cloth in enormous quantities, such as dress materials, suitings, flannelette, etc.

Boxes, bales and packages, as soon as they are ready, may be sent to the American Friends Service Committee store room, 15th and Cherry Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. They will be shipped from there as rapidly as they accumulate, to the country for which you designate them.

Yarn for sweaters, socks and caps, and garments cut ready for sewing await your order at the office of the American Friends Service Committee, 20 South Twelfth Street, Philadelphia, Pa. on payment of the cost of material.

Outline of a new and vigorous campaign against tuberculosis and other cattle diseases was given to field agents of the department of agriculture and a number of veterinarians by Secretary Rasmussen and Director Munce, of the bureau of animal Industry. The Secretary said the live stock of Pennsylvania represents $175,000,000 and he urged co-operation with Federal authorities Dr. Munce said Pennsylvania stands third among the states in herds of cattle free from tuberculosis.

Perkasie Fire Company Buys Building Site.

The Perkasie Fire company has purchased a lot on the north side of Market street, below Seventh that will in the near future be the site of an up-to-date moving picture theatre. The transaction was pending several weeks and was approved by the state authorities before the deal was finally closed. The purchase price was $4500.

Architect A. O. Martin, of Doylestown will submit plans for a one story structure with all the modern features and a seating capacity of 650, and as soon as plans are approved building operations will begin. The builders expect to have it completed in the fall when they resume their shows after the hot summer months.

This action of the firemen in giving Perkasie a new movie theatre meets with the approval of their patrons, who have loyally supported and patronized them for a number of years, in a house that lacked many of the conveniences and comforts of the average theatre. It will also assure the Fire Co. of a continued monopoly on the "movie" business in this town.

Find Storekeeper's Key Ring On Soldier's Body.

A report from the war department has reached William Hager, a Lansdalt storekeeper, that a keyring bearing his name, was found on the body of Adam Koffel, formerly of North Wales, who was killed in France during the war. An investigation showed that the ring was given to John Koffel, a brother of the soldier, during the war, and it was later sent to France along with some other trinkets to Adam.

The Koffel family has received a picture of the grave in France, and numerous articles of clothing and other effects used by the soldier in France have also been received by the family from the war department.

May Run for Prothonotary.

Hon. Isaiah T. Halteman, who is the present assemblymen from the Third district, may be an aspirant for the nomination on the Republican ticket for prothonotary of Montgomery county. This information has leaked out from the "inner circle."

The present holder of the office, H. S. Frederick, of Souderton, has not been heard from but it is said that he will be a candidate to succeed himself.

As this is the only important county office to be filled there promises to be a big fight on hand, several other names having been mentioned who would not say "no" to holding the position.

The weekly excursions under the auspices of the School of Horticulture for Women, of near Ambler, to various gardens, are growing more and more popular, as is evidenced by both increased interest and attendance. Our Norton Downs Post No. 25, American, did noble work on Memorial Day, and the community showed its approval of what was done by gathering to watch as the Legion honored those service men who have gone. About 30 veterans of the World war, three Civil war veterans and a few Boy Scouts left the town hall on Monday morning and marched to Rose Hill cemetery. Men along the route removed their hats as Old Glory passed, while autos stopped and the drivers saluted the flag All seemed to feel the solemnity of the occasion and there was no noise nor applause. When the cemetery was reached, where several hundred people had gathered, three graves were decorated with the American Legion marker, an American Flag and a beautiful spray of roses tied with red, white and blue ribbon. After the last grave was decorated, the firing of three volleys and the bugler blew "Taps." Rev. Ralph L. Mayberry offered a prayer over each grave as it was decorated, and at the close of the exercises deliverd an address on "Our Honored Dead." He called attention to the others of our community who had left nohing more to give, those who did not lie in home soil but who rested in the crimsoned soil of the battle-field. He suggested as a fitting epitaph for the tombstone for each of these departed heroes the quotation "Vivit, non mortuus est," "He lives, he is not dead." These men are not dead, but they live in our thought and speech. They live in our national character, and their living influence gives us nobler motives and a more heroic patriotism. After the exercises at Rose Hill cemetery the veterans marched to St. Anthony's cemetery and there decorated the grave of William P. Burk, whose body was just recently brought back from France and interred last Saturday. Three volleys were fired over his grave and "Taps" were again sounded. After this the boys returned to Town Hall and dispersed for the rest of the morning. In the afternoon, about 15 of the Legion boys went to North Wales to join the Post there in a service dedicating a memorial tablet in honor of World war veterans from that section. Kirk Magill was chairman of the Memorial day committee of our local post and deserves a great deal of praise for the excellent demonstration.

The hystery picture, "The Shadow of the Cross," which has defied scientific investigation for 25 years, will be on exhibition each night from June 1 to 5 in Calvary M. E. church, Ambler. Henry Hammond Ahl, who studied and painted in the art centers of the Old World, devoting his talents mainly to the genre subjects, upon returning to America in 1896 was persuaded by friends to devote himself to painting religious pictures. He set out to produce an ideal portrait of the Christman. He also was a musician and had a music studio in connection with his art studio. He had gotten as far with the picture of Christ as it now appears, when, upon coming into his studio at night for some sheets of music, he was astounded to discover upon entering that his picture could be distinctly seen in the dark, and the Christ appeared to be walking in the pale moonlight, while above and behind could be seen the shadow of a cross. His first impression was that the moon was shining through an open window upon the picture and that the cross was a shadow; but soon discovered that was not the case. As he claims he did not plan the cross in connection with the picture, having used the well-known pigments, he soon realized that the strange quality of his picture was beyond his power to explain. He refused to finish the picture, and it remains an unfinished picture today. The canvas on which the picture is painted measures four by seven feet. In ordinary light there is seen a lifesize standing figure of the Master. It conveys the clearness of His realization, the pathos of His Resignation. One feels as he looks upon the picture that here is the Christman, with His all embracing love, sweet gentleness. The Shadow of the Cross appears only when the picture is placed in a darkened room. In connection with the showing of the picture brief messages will be brought by the ministers of the community.

John Acuff, a former Amblerite, has been visiting relatives here.

James Bartleson, builder, has commenced work on the erection of the new school for Miss Mary R. Henszey and Miss Sarah D. Knipe, along Lindenwold avenue.

Wm. H. Faust, cashier of the First National Bank of Ambler, spent several days last week in Atlantic City attending the annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Bankers' association.

Moffett's photographic studio, formerly located at Butler and Ridge avenues, is now on South Spring Garden street, where careful attention is given to all photographic work, including actual sittings and developing.

A reliable, dependable, easy running, easy riding, economical in gasoline, oil and assuring long life to tires—such is the car you are looking for. I beg to call your attention to the Buick. Examine it critically, ask a Buick owner and let me demonstrate its many commendable features. —Rudolph Speelhoffer, agent. adv

Miss Mary R. Henszey has closed her private school for the summer.

The Ladies' Aid society of St. John's Lutheran church will hold a strawberry festival in the Sunday school room on June 4. These events are always social affairs of interest, and efforts are being put forth this year to make the festival more enjoyable than ever. Tickets are now available.

S. S. Gehman, the former well-known baker of Hatboro and Ambler, has associated himself with Thomas Truman under the firm name of Truman and Company with headquarters, bakery and salesrooms in the "Gazette" building, where renovation improvements are now being made by installing ovens and other modern appliances and conveniences to thoroughly equip the place. Pastry, cakes, pies, etc., of the finest kind and bread of the luscious and nutritious type will be produced at all hours of the day, so that the public may be assured of fresh products at all hours, and in addition a delivery system has been inaugurated, which will be developed and enlarged just as rapidly as the demands necessitate. Mr. Truman, who is himself an experienced baker, has established more than a local reputation for delicious products.

The Ambler branch of the Red Cross has now been designated the "North Penn Branch Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter." Arrangements have been completed for a meeting, under the auspices of the Ambler Social Service committee and the Whitemarsh Valley District Nursing committee of the North Penn branch of the Red Cross, to be held at the home of Mr. H. Frazer Harris, Hawes Lane, Springfield township, on Friday evening. The speakers will include Dr. Edward Martin, commissioner of health for this state, who will explain how the state approves and will stand back of the work being done in this community; Miss Kate Brusstar, county probation officer, "Probation Work;" Mr. William Urban, Justice of the peace of Ambler, "Social Service Work;" Rev. N. B Groton, rector of St. Thomas' church," District Nursing."

At a meeting of Ambler borough council to be held this Wednesday evening the committee, appointed to make an investigation into the borough highway affairs under the chairmanship of former Councilman A. R. Hayden, who is now held under $5000 for his appearance at the next term of court on a charge of padding the pay roll of the state highway department, will file its report, and it is believed that the findings will be to the effect that the borough has suffered in no way. However, it is likely that because of the manner in which the records of the highway work have been kept, recommendations will be made and some changes suggested. In its investigation, it is reported, that the committee has found a number of things that may be improved upon, because of the records having been destroyed there is now no way of establishing this fact. The committee also discovered, it is said, that prior to June, 1920, the records were kept complete, but since that time there are no records to show, who did the work, or where it was done. Many persons are of the opinion that there has been too much carelessness shown and too much confidence placed by the members of council in the efforts of one or two men to carry on the highway work. However, it is believed that the present members were arranging to take hold of affairs in a more business-like manner when the present condition was brought to a crisis. It is also believed now that the budget system, to which there was so much objection by Mr. Hayden, will be fully adopted and that all bills will be gone over carefully by the several committees of council.

Judge Paroles Man Refused Pardon.

Although the state pardon board refused a pardon to Bertie Eugene Rayner, he was paroled by Judge W. F. Holly, of Montgomery county courts. He was sentenced to nine months last September for admitted embezzlement of $730 from the American Express company, of which he was agent in charge at Norristown.

RULE OF PRACTICE

I once made a promise to a friend of mine,
To mail him a cheque for say, six forty-nine.
With patience this friend had the kindness to wait
While I sought a cheque to write six forty-eight.

I busied myself with all things under Heaven
Except the real fact, I owed six forty-seven
He sweat drops of blood; 'Twas a Helluffa fix
To keep him still waiting for six forty-six.
I paid the poor boob, just to keep him alive,
A cheque in high finance, for six forty-five.

This story was told me, a very true tale,
The start and the progress of each credit sale.
We cling to the noble in purpose-pay cash—
Until the seduction of ease "Don't be rash

Just purchase with coin which you hang on your chain
And pay in a month—what a comfort you gain."
The rule fundamental is - "pay as you go"
And not use a hay-rake to shovel your snow,
For otherwise Practice is wine mixed with gall,
And leads to a time when you won't pay at all.

May-1921 A. M. CRAIG

Wills Probated

Howard B. Bieler, late of Upper Hanover, disposes of an estate valued at $10,350, which he leaves to his wife. If she remarries, the estate is to revert to his children. The wife, Cora is named as executor.

Andrew Gallagher, late of Plymouth Meeting, disposes of an estate valued at $8,000, which he gives to his wife, Elizabeth, whom he also names as executrix.

Michael Gardocki, late of Conshohocken, disposes of an estate valued at $1100. Testator directs that the sum of $200 shall be placed in trust for the benefit of his crippled child, Wladyslawa, and the rest is given to the wife, Alexandra, "trusting that she will not forget any of the needy children." The widow is named as executrix.

Bessie E. Chappelle, late of Springfield, disposes of an estate valued at $1750, which she gives to her brothers and sisters. No executor being named, letters of administration with the will attached were granted to a sister, Minnie E. Robinson.

The will of Elizabeth F. Lukens, late of Conshohocken, disposing of an estate valued at over $65,000 was admitted to probate.

Testator gives the house and buildings at Sixth avenue and Fayette street, together with the horses, carriages, sleighs, etc., to her nephew Thomas Corson Yocom.

The contents of the house and jewelry are given to Frances Corson Yocom and Thomas Corson Yocom, to be disposed of according to directions left for their guidance, and the articles are not to be inventoried or appraised.

To a grandniece Sousan Foulke Yocom is given $4000.

Frances Corson Yocom and Jaywood Lukens, son of Victor Herbert Lukens, are each given $1000.

Thomas Corson Yocom is given one half of the residuary estate:

The remainder of the residuary estate is divided into fourteen equal parts.

One part is given to Edward Foulke Corson. Four parts are given to the Montgomery Trust Company of Norristown, for the life benefit of a sister, Tacy F. Cresson, with reversionary interest vested in her children. Six parts are divided equally among Frances Corson Yocom, Bertha B. C. Botter, Georgianna H. Hay, Hiram C. Yocom, Dorothy C. Yocom, James C. Yocom. The three remaining parts are to be divided among Beartha C. D. Bates, Charles Day, Richard F. Day.

Thomas Corson Yocom and Frederick L. Clark are named as executors.

Mary T. Wilkins, late of Jenkintown, gives an estate valued at $3400 to her children, J. Maurice Wilkins, Howard F. Wilkins, Walkins, Walter C. Wilkins and Mary B. Boyer, and names the son, J. Maurice and a son-in-law, Carl Royer, as executors.

If any of his three daughters, Julia, Margaret and Catherine, should marry between the date of his will, January 16, 1915, and his death, they are to lose a one-third interest in his residuary estate, and receive but $10 instead, so declares John J. Crowley, late of Conshohocken, in his last testament which disposes of an estate valued at $3800. Testator adds that he takes this action "as I desire to take as good care as possible of my unmarried daughters." Following the same line of reasoning, perhaps, testator states, "as I feel the rest of my children are better provided for I direct that only the sum of $10 be paid each, that is, my, son, James, and daughters, Mary and Josephine. These bequests are conditional upon the death of the widow, who is given the entire estate for life. The son, James and daughter, Julia, are named as executors.

The will of James A. Mitchell, late of Cheltenham, gives an estate valued at $5000 to his wife, Ida T. and names her as executor.

Half Century on Job.

Amongst the eleven employes of the Phila. & Reading Ry. Co. and associated companies who have been placed on the pension list during the past month, are two widely known residents of Bridgeport.

Jacobs Richards, who has been the lock tender for the Schuylkill Navigation company, at the Bridgeport locks, holds the record for length of service among the men who have just been pensioned. Mr. Richards retires with an unbroken record of 49 years and 10 months of service.

Eugene H. Gouldey, whose name has also been placed on the Roll of Honor of the company, was for many years the watchman at the DeKalb street crossing, and has an unbroken record of 47 years and 5 months of service.

Wed While Supposedly Dying Is Now on Mend.

Miss Emma Agnes Lacey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M F. Lacey, of 2039 North Cleveland avenue, Philadelphia, was married to Francis J. Donnelly, of Doylestown, on what he believed was his deathbed in the Abington Memorial Hospital last Saturday afternoon.

After the ceremony Donnelly willed Miss Lacey a fortune said to approximate $50,000.

The news of the wedding was made public with the news also that the young bridegroom, who the physicians believed could not recover, is improving rapidly under the stimulus of his new found happiness.

His bride has been almost constantly by his side since the wedding in the hospital ward and the two are now planning "going housekeeping" in Doylestown after the young husband is convalescent.

The marriage was the culmination of a boy-and-girl romance. Donnelly is not quite twenty-one years old and his bride is about the same age. Their families have been friends for years, and the young people have known each other since they were children.

Work on Springhouse and Chestnut Hill Pike.

Mr. Charles E. Ingersoll, of Penllyn, transmits to the "Gazette" the following reply from Hon. Lewis S. Sadler, state highway commissioner, with regard to the date of completion of the concrete road on the Springhouse and Chestnut Hill turnpike. Mr. Ingersoll had expressed the hope that the road will be open by July 4, and Mr. Sadler's reply gives some hope that the road from Ambler southward will be usable near that date. Mr. Sadler's letter to Mr. Ingersol is as follows:

"I am sorry that I cannot give you the definite assurance which you request in your letter of May 18th that our state highway route No. 153 will be entirely complete and open for traffic as far as Ambler by July 4. It is our confident expectation that this improvement shall be constructed to that point by the middle of July, maybe sooner, but we must reckon on the hazards of weather, transportation and ability to secure material promptly. Such assurance as you may give to your neighbors should have this qualification else disappointments and reflections will follow.

That section of the Bethlehem pike from Ambler to Springhouse is under contract and work on it will be continued as soon as the portion to Ambler is completed.

Be assured that we will continue to use every effort to force the early completion of this important highway."

Conshohocken Man Ordained Priest.

Francis P. K. Hoey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hoey, of Conshohocken, has been ordained to the priesthood in Catholic faith. The new priest has held his initial mass in St. Matthew's church, that borough. Father Hoey will be assisted by Dr. Gallagher, rector of St. Matthew's, as deacon.

J. M. Walmsley Is Suspended.

The state highway department as the result of further investigation, has directed the suspension of Justice M. Walmsley, of Branchtown, as road superintendent of Montgomery county, and Edward Bytheway, of Norristown, a road foreman under the superintendent.

Six employes of the department are now under arrest in Montgomery county on charges of misappropriating funds, and the dismissals Tuesday night came as a result of the disclosures in Montgomery county.

Bytheway voluntarily went to Harrisburg and he admitted to deputy general Robert S. Gawthrop that through the padding of payroll accounts he had personally benefited to the extent of several hundred dollars.

Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Every family should keep this preparation at hand ready for instant use when needed. Severe attacks of colic and cholera morbus often prove fatal before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned. FORT WASHINGTON NEWS.

Items of Passing Interest Condensed in Short Paragraphs.

Concrete Laying Actually Commenced on Turnpike—Charles B. Hersh Improved From Recent Illness—Scarlet Fever About—Misscellaneous.

Scarlet fever closed the local Whitemarsh school on Friday. The school was thoroughly fumigated before it was reopened.

Russell Riley has made carpenter repairs about the Fort Washington post-office property, which is owned by Mrs. Amanda Carn.

Job Detwiler, who was employed on Upper Dublin township road work, having resigned, is now at work on the state highway through thisplace.

Several companies of Boy Scouts occupied camps in the Huffnagle and Nemorofsky meadows over the week-end and Memorial day.

Charles B. Hersh, tax collector of Whitemarsh township, who was suddenly taken ill one day last week, is somewhat improved. A very singular and yet fortunate part of of the affair was that Dr. A. J. Craig, of this place, had gone to the home of Mr. Hersh to pay his taxes, and while he was awaiting receipt for payment, Mr. Hersh was stricken. Dr. Craig immediately took the patient in charge.

Efforts are being made to induce Samuel Yeakle to again stand for the Republican nomination for school director in Whitemarsh township. Mr. Yeakle has served with fidelity and interest in the work for many years and is well qualified by experience, training and education for the position, takes a keen interest and has time to devote to the duties. In addition of a consolidated school at Barren Hill, which practically means a reorganization and reconstruction of the township's school system, and to make any changes in the personnel of the board at this time, except for just cause, will be a mistake and may seriously handicap the present plans of the board, which will require at least another year to get under way. Mr. W. C. Bailie, of Marble Hall, is another members whose term expires with this year, and it is believed that he, too, can be induced to again make the sacrifice for the good of the township and undertake the work if the voters desire.

Concrete laying commenced last week on the turnpike south of the railroad bridge and this work will be advanced well beyond the Sandy Run. Plans were under way to work on Memorial day, but weather conditions interfered. The grade just south of the railroad bridge seems too high for adjoining properties, but it makes the hill climb a steady and regular one, and in the end will prove an improvement.

Were you at the musicale in Trinity Lutheran church last Wednesday evening? If not, you certainly missed a wonderful treat. The church was beautifully decorated with peonies and greens. The largest audience that the church has had (so far) welcomed the artists. The whole program was rendered by local talent, either from our town or from Ambler. The musicale was of the highest quality and the artists measured up to the occasion in the finest manner. Everyone was greatly pleased which was shown not only by the hearty applause, which called forth an enchore for every number, but also by the very liberal offering. This proves that the people at Fort Washington appreciate music. Now a brand new piano is installed and new electric lights as well. Rev. Earnest H. J. Hoh, a graduate of the Mount Airy seminary, who has accepted the call to Trinity church, introduced himself to the audience in a brief but happy speech. An appeal was made to the mutual friendship of all the people living in Fort Washington.

Walter Craig has laid sod between the new sidewalk and curb and along the side of his property, which has greatly improved appearances.

Summit avenue, in places, is very much in need of repairs, as there are quite a number of holes in the road bed, especially between township line road and Montgomery avenue.

Mrs. Robert White, of Philadelphia, spent the Memorial holidays here as the guest of friends.

Mr. Oranger is completing the tennis court in the rear of his home. The sod taken therefrom in skinning the ground comprised the material for some of the residents to resod their yards.

Roadmaster Hersh has had a force of men and a roller at work repairing township line road, between the railroad bridge and Summit avenue. A good job is being made of the same.

The junior branch of the Needlework Guild of America held a successful lawn social Saturday afternoon on the fire company's lawn.

General Dixon is now laying a cement pavement in front of N. C. Duttarer's property, on Summit avenue, which greatly improves the same.

Upper Dublin schools will close June 16. Announcement of the date of the commencement exercises will be made later.

According to report there is quite a race on here for the appointment of a deputy constable for Whitemarsh township in this section of Fort Washington. Russell Riley holds the office at present and is now opposed by Leo Spiekermann. Both have been circulating petitions and each has a large number of signers. However, the appointment rests with the court.

On June 19 at 4 p. m. the choir of St. Thomas', assisted by Mr. McClellan, will render Maunder's cantata, "Song of Thanksgiving." 2jun3t

For a number of years the students have been celebrating her birthday by giving her a surprise in games, music both vocal and instrumental. She was the recipient of many beautiful flowers and gifts of a more substantial nature.

The Memorial day service were celebrated in Barren Hill cemetery Monday morning under the direction of George Smith Post, Grand Army of the Republic, of Conshohocken. After their services, the cannon obtained through said post from the government for Barren Hill cemetery was ddicated by Rev. E. A. Chamberlin, who spoke in part as follows: "I dedicate this cannon to the memory of Edwin M. Skilton, the only American from Barren Hill, to lay down his life in the great War. I dedicate this cannon to the memory of Marquis DeLafayette, that great Frenchman who espoused our cause in our infancy and who guarded with his soldiers near this place, the encampment of our great General Washington. I dedicate this cannon to the memory of all those who fell in any of the wars of our country. Their memory is made sweet by the fact that they were able and willing to make the supreme sacrifice that the honor of our flag and integrity of our country should remain unsullied."

COLD POINT AND PLYMOUTH.

Frank Stead and daughter, of Cold Point, spent Sunday in Philadelphia, with friends.

The Sewing Circle of Cold Point, grange will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Carpenter, Arch street road, on Wednesday of next week.

The Germantown turnpike has been oiled by the state and is now in fine condition.

During the past week the new station along the Plymouth branch of the Reading railroad at the Gravers and Chemical Works roads has been put into readiness for service In addition to the old freight car, which will serve as a freight station, another discarded and obsolete piece of rolling stock in the form of an old passenger coach has been unloaded there and lifted to foundations of timber to serve as a passenger station. Later on William Mitchell, of Lansdale, who is agent at Corson's station, will be given charge of the new depot on the Reading.

Work at the E. J. Lavino company's local plant seems to be improving steadily, with prospects of a steady growth in business during the next few months. The plant of the American Magnesia company is still operating on a five-day per week schedule.

HORSHAM AND UPPER DUBLIN.

The supper under the auspices of the Guild and P. O. S. of A. Camp was a success in every way.

CENTRE SQUARE.

The public schools of Whitpain township closed for the summer vacation last Friday.

An enjoyable surprise party was tendered Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Whittock, last Saturday evening at his home on the DeKalb Street pike in honor of his 20th birthday anniversary. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion in the national colors, and the evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner. The young man received may beautiful and useful gifts from the guests who were present and who wished him many such happy occasions.

Miss Clara Cassel was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harper at their home in Norristown on Sunday.

An accident happened to the school truck last Friday, but fortunately no one was injured. It happened on the last day of the school term, and it was the last trip with the children. The machine had proceeded as far as Andrew Robinson's home, on DeKalb Street pike, and had stopped to let off some of the pupils, when without warning there was a loud report. Upon investigation it was found that the cylinder head had blown out and completely wrecked not only the engine, but also the truck, which will be unfit for further use. It is said that the accident was due to a crack in the Cylinder. The driver, at the time, had very little gas feeding into the engine. Otherwise the accident might have been more serious.

There is every indication now that the annual carnival and supper of the Centre Square Fire company, to be held next Friday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening, will be largely attended, in fact it is predicted that if the weather remains favorable for the two days that the attendance will be the largest of any of these enjoyable affairs. It is believed that the committee will succeed in making this the banner event, and the ladies, not to be outdone, are going to see to it that the supper will be all that it is claimed for it. Because of this friendly rivalry those who attend will be bounr to receive their full money's worth, and in addition an opportunity is offered to help the fire laddies along and to assist them in promoting greater efficiency.

The grip patients, Master Frank Potter and the Cressman children, are now able to be around again.

The central committee of the 4th of July Celebration met at the home of Mr. Hummell on Tuesday night. The chairmen of the various sub-committees reported their activities up to date and brought forward suggestions for future action. The speakers committee has secured Frank X Renninger, esq., district attorney of Montgomery county, as the orator of the day. The success of this committee alone augurs well for the success of the whole celebration, as the securing of Mr. Renninger means that the speaking part of the day's events could not be improved upon. This committee is to be congratulated. The parade committee has many surprises in store and is getting these into shape. The sports committee is arranging events for all ages and conditions, so fat men and lean men get busy, get limbered up or there will be some sore limbs on the day after. Refreshments are being well cared for and nobody wil lack for anything in this line. The flag committee has secured a flag pole, and the unfurling of the beautiful stars and stripes with all the little flags for thec hildren, will be one of the prettiest sights of the day. The finance committee is meeting with good responses from all those who have been approached so far. So whoop it up for the 4th of July, plan to stay at home on that day and you will be well repaid.

The teachers and officers of the Lutheran Sunday school met last week at the home of Mr. Cressman. After some discussion, a Sunday school cabinet was organized to meet at least once every month. Alen G. Cressman, Jr., was elected secretary. All matters in reference to Sunday school. work will come before this cabinet. Miss Beatrice Calverley and Miss Hazel Brady were appointed teachers in the intermediate and primary departments respectively. Charles Zoll was appointed to have charge of all Sunday literature.

Miss Marguerite Strauss, of Weldy avenue, spent the week-end and Memorial day with friends in Allentown, her former home.

The quoit club, of Park avenue, had a strenuous day on Memorial day. There were contests going all day long even until dark. If rumor has it right, there are a number of new converts to the game. Some of the games were very close and were only decided at the last moment of play. The number wishing to play made it necessary to lay out two or three new throwing areas. It is likely that a round robin tournament will soon be in progress.

There was a good attendance at the Lutheran Sunday school on last Sunday. The matter of holding the Children's day entertainment was brought up and hearty response was the result. Owing to a late start, the entertainment will probably be held on June 19th. The church services were of a patriotic nature and were well attended. Services next Sunday will be Sunday school at 2.30, when songs will be practiced for Children's day, and preaching services at 7.30 p. m.

SAVING SERMONETTE
By an Eminent Divine.

An eminent divine once said, "The man who has a bank account, even though it be small, always walks more erect, and has a larger measure of self-respect than the man who has not. Why should not a bank be sacred, and a contributor to manhood, as well as a church? Why should not a banker be a minister of God to the people equally with the priest or preacher? The man who helps his neighbor to a home is a builder of altars, whose incense is fragrant with the odors of heaven. No man can afford to waste.

It is worth a life time of scrupulous economy if in the evening of life, one can be seated before his own fireside. The reason so many are friendless, and so many families homeless, is the price comes too high. To sacrifice habits that neither enlarge one's scope of vision, nor brings any permanent joy is, to the average man, a burdensome task. The time to begin sacrificing is at the entrance into life."
